ISUAA—serving annuitants and survivors since 1971

Message from the ISUAA president

I am hoping this newsletter finds you happy, healthy, and embracing warmer weather wherever you are. I think you will find this newsletter to be informative as I invite you to become involved in your annuitants' association. Whether you are newly retired, have been retired for a while, or are still working at Illinois State, there is space for your involvement.

A good place to start your involvement is at the upcoming Annual ISUAA Dinner and Business Meeting which will be held Wednesday, June 15. It is a great opportunity for members to meet their board members, socialize with former and current colleagues, and to be entertained and educated. This year's annual meeting will feature university archivist and ISUAA board member, April Anderson-Zorn. Anderson-Zorn's presentation is titled Under the Lid: A Behind-the-Scenes Look at the Dr. JoAnn Rayfield Archives at Illinois State University. University Archives is a tremendous university resource, and this is your opportunity to learn how it works and how it benefits students and faculty. Also remember to complete and mail the form on the back of this newsletter to reserve your spot.

The annual meeting also includes the election of board members, and this year, the slate includes nominees for permanent president, new secretary, and a board position. If you are interested in serving or learning more about the board and the work we do, please contact me or any board member. You can also find out more about ISUAA at our website, Annuitants.IllinoisState.edu or our parent organization SUAA at suaa.org.

I look forward to seeing you at our Annual Meeting. Have a great summer.

How Time Flies

By April Karlene Anderson-Zorn, university archivist,
Dr. Jo Ann Rayfield Archives at Illinois State University

150 years ago – 1872

- Dr. Calvin Goudy, part of the Auditing Committee, reported to the Board on accounts requiring payment for services rendered. Some of those accounts and services included:
 - Payment of $21.17 to J.D. Wilder for “slated blackboard;”
 - Payment of $3.00 to J.H. Mellish for “clock repair;”
 - Payment of $7.00 to John Taylor for “hauling water;”
 - Payment of $2.50 to A. Phillips for “making a gate;” and
 - Payment of $8.66 to Robert Fell for “brooms.”

Proceedings of the Board of Education of the State of Illinois, Meeting Minutes, June 26, 1872, pg. 3.

100 years ago – April/May/June 1922

- The Varsity men and Fell Hall women held a joint party in the main living room of Fell Hall. An estimated 125 students attended the party, where they were initially asked to group themselves by their hair color. After much confusion, the groups were given a slip of paper with a nursery rhyme. The groups then acted out the nursery rhymes to other party attendees. Once the games were complete, the living room and dining room opened so that couples were “tripping to the light fantastic” into the late evening hours. The Vidette, April 12, 1922 (Vol. 34, No. 28, pg. 3).
- At the request of the seniors, Angeline Vernon Milner prepared five informal lectures on the organization and operations of school libraries. These lectures included the following topics: “The organization, cataloging and use of school libraries,” “Sources of further help of traveling libraries and of material for school debates and club papers,” “Booklists, book buying, pictures and pamphlets,” and “U.S. and Illinois publications needed by school libraries and how to get them.” The Vidette, May 3, 1922 (Vol. 34, Nos. 31, pg. 1).
- The largest graduating class in school history prepared for commencement ceremonies on June 8. Over 200 graduates were expected to matriculate from the Normal school, while 43 were listed as graduates for University High School. The Vidette, June 1, 1922 (Vol. 34, No. 55, pg. 1).

75 years ago – April/May/July 1947

- Fell Hall residents and their guests were invited to the “Umbrella Room” as part of the April Showers party on April 19. Attendees could expect “singing waitresses” and a “musical floorshow followed by dancing to the music of the big-name bands on record.” The Vidette, April 19, 1947 (Vol. 59, No. 24, pg. 1).
- On May 6, friends and fellow faculty celebrated the 20-year career of Agnes Rice, associate professor of education. Rice began her tenure at ISNU in 1927. For many, Rice served “as a fitting model on which to base of future actions” as educators in the classroom. The Vidette, May 7, 1947 (Vol. 59, No. 27, pg. 2).

- On July 22, Mrs. Evelsizer became president of the Householders organization. Members of the Householders include “households who rent rooms to ISNU students” and typically meet four times a year to discuss issues and problems related to room rentals. This meeting included a talk by Chris A. DeYoung, Dean of the University, who spoke to on his experiences in Germany. The Vidette, July 23, 1947 (Vol. 59, No. 32, pg. 1).

50 years ago – May–July 1972

- In response to a student survey, the Association of Residence Halls (ARH) Diversified Living Committee submitted a proposal to the University to change guest hours to a 24-hour policy at most campus dorms. The proposed new guest hours of 24/7 admittance included Wright, Walker, and Manchester Halls and Randolph, Monroe, Smith, Jefferson, Marshall, and Clay houses in Watterson Towers. A weekend 24-hour guest policy was proposed for Haynie, Wilkins, Hamilton-Whitten, Hewett Halls and Van Buren, Pickering, and Madison houses of Watterson Towers. The latter would also see guest hours potentially changing to noon to closing during the week. Dunn, Atkin-Colby, and Adams house guest hours would go unchanged. The Vidette, April 13, 1972 (Vol. 84, No. 57, pg. 1).
- Filmmaker Larry Jordan, known for his experimental works, including The Sacred Art of Tibet, was the featured artist at the ISU Fine Arts Festival held on May 11 and 12. Jordan planned to shoot 15 minutes of film of the ISU campus and show two feature films (including Tibet) and two short films. The Vidette, May 9, 1972 (Vol. 84, No. 70, pg. 2).
- The Entertainment Board announced the 1972-73 series lineup that included headlining acts. Performances by Elton John, Chicago, and George Carlin led a list that included The Chi-Lites, the Jacques Loussier Trio, Ferrante and Teicher, classicist Virgil Fox, and the traveling show Godspell. The lineup cost $80,000 with the promise by the Board that tickets would not exceed $5. The Vidette, July 20, 1972 (Vol. 85, No. 3, pg. 2).

25 years ago – April/May/June 1997

- To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Friends of Milner Library, the group held an invited talk at the Bone Student Center on April 1. Karen Schmidt, Head of Library Acquisitions at the University of Illinois, spoke about the advancements in library technologies through the years. Schmidt spoke about creating card catalogs, pens designed specifically for writing on cards for the physical catalog, the move to typewriters, and automatic card catalog processors. In speaking on new technology, Schmidt mentioned an innovation by Sony who had created “a disc player that can hold thousands of titles.” At that time, the device could only be found in Japan. The Daily Vidette, April 3, 1997 (Vol. 109, No. 137, pg. 3).
- On April 30, the Bistro celebrated “Ellen Coming Out Day” to support the Human Rights Campaign and human equality. The Bloomington bar held a viewing of the television show Ellen and played for patrons’ commercials that “advocated equal rights for gays and lesbians” that the show’s network,

- ABC, did not air. Throughout the event, organizers held an Ellen trivia contest. The Daily Vidette, May 1, 1997 (Vol. 109, No. 157, pg. 1).
- Victor (Vic) Boschini was named as the new vice president and dean of student affairs, replacing William Gurowitz, who retired. Boschini served as associate provost at Butler University upon his naming to the position and earned his doctorate at DePauw University. Slated to start his tenure August 1, Boschini planned to learn about the people and places of ISU: "I will particularly concentrate on meeting the students, and the student leaders, for whom I will be working at Illinois State." The Summer Vidette, June 25, 1997 (Vol. 110, No. 102, pg. 3).

In Search of Native American History: The Koster Site Archaeological Expedition

9:30-11:30 a.m.

June 7, 14, 21, 28 (Tuesdays)

In 1969, archaeologists discovered the remains of a series of Native American settlements on the farm of Theodore and Mary Koster near Eldred, Illinois. Artifacts found near the present-day ground surface were 1,000 years old. Those found at a depth of nearly 30 feet in a 6-foot-by-6-foot hand-excavated shaft were more than 8,000 years old. Dr. Michael Wiant, retired director of the Illinois State Museum and the Dickson Mounds, will explore how archaeologists and other scientists, using a variety of theories, methods, and techniques, pieced together Native American and environment history in the Illinois River Valley.

To register, go to SeniorProfessionals.IllinoisState.edu/Educational-Opportunities.

Join TeeBirds Retiree Golf League for 2022

By Chuck McGuire

The ISU TeeBirds golf league plans another great year for 2022!

TeeBirds are retired faculty or staff members, spouses or significant others, and guests. We meet Thursday mornings at 8 a.m. for nine holes of golf and social events. Friends of the TeeBirds are also welcome as members.

The group's home course is Illinois State University's Weibring Golf Club, but we mix in other area courses for variety including Ironwood, Prairie Vista, and others. Weekly play alternates between individual scoring and various scramble formats. We plan events to appeal to golfers at all ability levels. The annual membership fee is $15. Members are welcome to play any Thursday as their summer schedule and health permits. Some members continue on for 18 holes on our play days.

Our first meeting for 2022 will be Thursday, May 12 at Weibring Golf Club. We will begin at 7:30 a.m. with a light breakfast, introductions, and a little organization. At about 8 a.m. we will begin our first outing on the front nine at Weibring.

We welcome golfers at all ability levels. No one has become eligible for the Champions Tour (yet—there is always hope), but our goal is fellowship, fresh air, and a good time. We schedule a nice mix of social events among our golf play times. Feel free to come join us anytime during the season up through September. Just check our play schedule listed on our website isuteebirds.net for the time and course, and show up or send an email to dwilliam@IllinoisState.edu. We will work you in.

Check out our website at isuteebirds.net or contact membership coordinator Chuck McGuire at crmcgui@IllinoisState.edu for more information. Come join and give us a try!

Charley and Preethy Edamala establish esports scholarship

By Laura Freyman

Charley Edamala, associate vice president and chief information officer of Illinois State's Office of Technology Solutions, did not set out to champion Redbird Esports. He was simply looking for space in 2018 for students participating in esports as a registered student organization (RSO) to practice and play.

He found a Julian Hall conference room that was converted into the Digital Innovation, Graphics, and Gaming Studio (DIGGS) with machines he advocated be purchased. Working with the RSO president at the time, Jack Blahnik '19, Edamala was inspired to help ISU establish a varsity esports team that competes nationally.

With a direction secured, Edamala knew the University needed to move quickly to become the first state institution with a varsity esports team. He was pleased when David Kirk, M.S. '16, was hired in January 2020 as ISU's esports program director and a Redbird Esports varsity team was created. Now Redbird Esports is gearing up to move into a newly renovated space within the Bowling and Billiards Center in fall 2022.

He and his wife, Preethy, created the Sarah Ninan and Annamma John Mathew Scholarship to support underserved students who participate in Redbird Esports. The fund pays tribute to Edamala's mother, Annamma, and Preethy's mother, Sarah. Both were trailblazers for whom education was transformational.

Born in Kerala, India to parents with limited resources, Annamma was the first of her family to attend college. After graduating, she and Edamala's father pursued teaching roles in Tanzania, where Edamala was born.

Sarah was born in Kerala to a farmer in a time when educating girls was uncommon, yet her love of learning prevailed. She left home and went to Bombay to study nursing. There she met Preethy's father, who eventually earned a Ph.D. in physics.

Like their families, Charley and Preethy value education. Preethy earned bachelor's and master's degrees in architecture from the University of Nebraska. Charley earned a bachelor's degree in electronics and telecommunications from the University of Zambia, a master's in computer science from Temple University, and is completing a doctorate in higher education administration at Illinois State.

The Edamalas hope their scholarship will help students become trailblazers in the gaming world and other STEM fields.

Retiring?

Retiring? Time to submit a new membership form. For those employees who are retiring in the near future and who pay their ISUAA/SUAA dues through payroll deduction, it is important to remember that you will need to complete a new membership form arranging for your dues to be deducted by SURS rather than Illinois State University's payroll. If you submit your new membership form before you retire, your first dues payment will likely be deducted from your second pension check. The membership form is available at Annuitants.IllinoisState.edu. Click on the "membership" heading. Thank you for your continued support!
